

William Harold Walz, 85

William Harold Walz, age 85 passed away peacefully at his home in Duxbury surrounded by family on Feb. 3, 2017. He was born on Dec. 13, 1931 in Brooklyn New York to Charles and Anna Walz, and was the youngest of four siblings. After moving to Valley Stream, he graduated from Brooklyn Tech and went on to serve in the Navy Submarine Corps on the USS Runner SS-476 during the Korean War.

Following service to country, Bill married Mary Carolyn "Lyn" McAnally on Sept. 7, 1957 and together had four sons and two daughters. He will be remembered most as a devoted husband and father, putting his family first and building a lifetime of memories. He loved his dogs, opened his home and shaped a lot of lives. Bill was an accomplished electrical engineer in the aerospace industry and later had a successful career building a sales operation for an international company.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Lyn and his children: Douglas (Kathy), Roberta (John), Philip (Kym), Thomas (Cathie), James (Carrie) and Marianne (Steve); and 17 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements will be under the care of the Bartlett Funeral Home, 338 Court St., Plymouth. Calling hours will be from 9:30-10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 11. A memorial service will follow at 10:30 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment will immediately follow at Mayflower Cemetery in Duxbury.

Memorial donations may be made to The Humane Society of the United States.
